

The Town of West Seneca Honors
Miss Emily Moser

WHEREAS, libraries and their dedicated staff and volunteers contribute immeasurably to the communities they serve. These dedicated individuals make a lasting imprint on the citizens and their children, an imprint that transcends years and generations thus making our community a better place to live and work. The staff who serve our West Seneca Public Library are no exception to this rule;

WHEREAS; In many instances members of our staff go beyond the high standards set in place by all the dedicated librarians who serve our community, the West Seneca Library has one such staff member;

WHEREAS, Miss Emily Moser, better known to generations of children as Miss Emily is without question one of these exceptional individuals who, beyond all reasonable expectations, champions the cause of early childhood reading and children's education;

WHEREAS, On April 18, 2015 The Friends of The Library and the Library Staff chose to honor Miss Emily for her dedication to our children and her famous Story Hour by hosting a preschool reunion which included many, many children of all ages, including many successful graduates of the Children's Library who returned to honor and thank Miss Emily for her gift of reading;

WHEREAS; Miss Emily has been the Children's Librarian at the West Seneca Public Library for over 27 of her 30 years as a librarian and has performed her many duties in an exceptional and innovative manner. Her dedicated service has resulted in a list of achievements and accomplishments too numerous to mention in this brief recognition of great service and;

WHEREAS, It is the desire of this Town Board and the Citizens of the Great Town of West Seneca, New York to recognize Miss Emily for her many contributions to our children;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that Supervisor Sheila Meegan, and Councilmen Eugene P. Hart and William Hanley of the great town of West Seneca New York hereby proclaim the week of May 11 through May 16, 2015 as Miss Emily's week and grant all the benefits and honors so deserving to her as allowed under Law and especially by all who love and respect her. We encourage all parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles and all others to read to their children each and every day during that week and beyond in Miss Emily's honor. In addition, we encourage you to visit the West Seneca Public Library and thank Miss Emily in person for her years of dedicated service.

MAY 11 2015

6